

Discrete Mechanics and Variational Integrators

MATTHEW WEST

Control and Dynamical Systems 107-81

California Institute of Technology

Pasadena, CA 91125-8100, USA

mwest@cds.caltech.edu

Abstract

Lagrangian systems can be discretized at the level of the variational principle, giving integrators which are automatically symplectic and momentum preserving. This poster reviews the derivation of such variational integrators and discusses their properties and behavior, illustrated with some examples of well-known methods for molecular dynamics.